Scripture: Date:

- Sum up the key points of the passage.

- What does all of this mean for me and the way I live my life?

- Write down some stuff that you really want to remember from this passage. What really sticks out to you? Or maybe write down a verse from the passage that you think would be good to memorize.

- What characteristics of God stick out to you the most in this passage?

- Share a praise, or many. Is there something that you can give thanks and credit to God for? Or does this scripture bring to mind a praise?

- Share a prayer request, or many. Or does this scripture bring to mind a prayer request?

- Share an answered prayer, or many. Or does this scripture bring to mind an answered prayer?

- What are some positive and negative spiritual realities happening in your life? Basically, what is going on with you spiritually, either something good, or something you are struggling with? If there is a struggle, then hey, that can be a prayer request too!