

Uttermost: Read these passages from God's Word. Acts 1:8 "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." (In the King James Version, we are told to go "unto the uttermost part of the earth.")

Matthew 28:19-20 (The Message) Jesus, undeterred, went right ahead and gave his charge: "God authorized and commanded me to commission you: Go out and train everyone you meet, far and near, in this way of life, marking them by baptism in the threefold name: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Then instruct them in the practice of all I have commanded you. I'll be with you as you do this, day after day after day, right up to the end of the age."

Psalms 139:7-12 (The Message) Is there anyplace I can go to avoid your Spirit? To be out of your sight? If I climb to the sky, you're there! If I go underground, you're there! If I flew on morning's wings to the far western horizon, You'd find me in a minute—you're already there waiting! Then I said to myself, "Oh, he even sees me in the dark! At night I'm immersed in the light!" It's a fact: darkness isn't dark to you; night and day, darkness and light, they're all the same to you. Psalms 139:9-10 (NLT) If I ride the wings of the morning, if I dwell by the farthest oceans, even there your hand will guide me, and your strength will support me.

As His disciples, His followers (as Christians), Jesus tells us to go everywhere and tell everyone about Him. Follow me on this. In Acts 1:8, Jesus tells us we will have power from the Holy Spirit, so go everywhere and tell everyone about what He has done for all people. (What He did was die for us and pay the price for our sins so we can have forgiveness) In Matthew 28:19-20, Jesus assures us that when we go and tell, He will be with us for all time. Psalm 139 assures us that there is no where we can go without God being with us. In verses 9-10 in the NLT version, we are told God will guide us no matter where we are. This is marvelous! Jesus tells us to go tell everyone about Him, and He assures us that He will always be with us wherever we go! Rest in the strength and faithfulness of God. Live for Him who died for you. 2 Corinthians 5:15.
